Centres for mentally retarded persons

2769. SHRI E.M. SUDARSANA NATCHIAPPAN: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the number of centres for mentally retarded persons in the country as on date;

(b) whether this number is sufficient to meet the requirements of the mentally retarded persons; and

(c) if not, the remedial measures taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI SUBBULAKSHMI JAGADEESAN): (a) The Government has enacted the National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999. The National Trust, set up under the said Act, is providing financial assistance for running 113 Care Centres.

The National Institute for the Mentally Handicapped (NIMH), set up in 1984, inter-alia, provides training to rehabilitation professionals and parents.

Under the Deendayal Disabled Rehabilitation Scheme of the Ministry, 342 Non-Governmental Organisations are receiving grant-in-aid for running special schools, vocational training centres, early intervention programme, community based rehabilitation programme, etc., for mentally challenged persons.

(b) and (c) Every year proposals for new centres, received from un-serviced areas, are being sanctioned keeping in view the technical feasibility of the projects and availability of funds. However, the Central Government Schemes only supplement the welfare programmes of the State Governments including those for mentally retarded persons.
